LADIES NIGHT TAKES WELL

The Hotel Baths were packed to the doors and many turned away Saturday night. The large pavilion was unable to accommodate the people who desired to witness the first entertainment of its kind ever given here. Those who were so fortunate as to secure a seat were treated to an exhibition in the swimming line that they will remember for many days to come.

Promptly at 8 o'clock the four little mermaids appeared followed by the Hawaiian Swimming Club. Mr. Tomlinson announced the first event as the "appearance of the four little mermaids." Miss Restarick, together with Miss C. and P. Berry started in a 25-yard dash and from the time these little girls struck the water they had the enthusiastic spectators with them. All three started with graceful overhead strokes that carried them swiftly across the pool. The girls showed both speed and form. Miss Alice Hastings then started the diving and she did both spring-board and high diving, entering the water without a splash. Miss Restarick did some flips that quite bewildered the spectators. Miss Berry was also good. The four youngsters did some sliding down the chute that was very amusing. The exhibition by these girls was both interesting and instructive and they deserve all sorts of credit for their ability in the water.

Ben Clark and Geo. Clark did stunts on the rings, displaying good form. Both were completely dressed and a slip would have been a ducking in the tank.

Cooper and Cunha sprinted 50 yards in a pretty race; they churned the water with their powerful crawl stroke and finished close with much excitement displayed by the crowd.

The Plate contest or the scramble under water for a couple of dozen pebbles and the barrel race were amusing features.

Freeth, O'Brien and Kopke did some diving that was good. Freeth was in rare form and did appalling feats from the high dive and flying trapeze. His work was that of a finished acrobat and was much appreciated by all present. O'Brien also did some good tricks and Kopke was very graceful in his plain dives.

Jeas Woods performed a difficult feat by swimming 50 yards with his hands and feet bound. The trick looked simple, but it could be plainly seen that it must have taken much practice to learn.

The 100-yard handicap race with Kopke at scratch and Lyle and Foss with the start, wound up with an exciting finish. Kopke overtook Lyle and steadily gained on Foss, the latter only winning by a couple of feet.

The Diamond Head Athletic Club presented a turn that deserves special mention. These lads were booked for the last turn, "follow the leader." They appeared in a variety of make-up that would have done credit to a bunch of vaudeville actors. They were all there from the clown to the cop, Mr. Chink, O'Leary, Miss Skidoo and the Clown. Geo. Freeth put them through all sorts of stunts and the positions that were assumed while going through the air and the manner in which they entered the water kept the crowd in a fit of laughter. The Diamond Heads certainly lived up to their reputation on Saturday night and their appearance brought down the house and sent every one away in a good humor.

The entertainment was a huge success and these ladies' nights are sure to become very popular.

The next aquatic event at the Baths will be the yearly meet between the Myrtle and Healan Boat Clubs.

HEALANIS TRAIN TONIGHT

The Healan swimming team will start to train by a good, hard work out at the Baths tonight. They have lost the last two relay races and they are going to get in first-class shape for the coming event, which starts on the 16th of February.

MAUI TENNIS

A challenge doubles championship match was played on the Puunene courts on the 19th inst.

The opponents were Baldwin and Savage, challengers, against Thomson and Stevenson, holders. The courts were in good order and quite a number of visitors and local people watched the play. The conditions of the match were the best three out of five sets.

The first set went to Thomson and Stevenson, 6-4. Thomson's cross-court strokes were very brilliant and Stevenson ably backed his partner up. Some of the latter's passing shots down the side lines being perfect. The second set also went to the defenders of the championship, who captured it 6-2.

Baldwin did especially fine work in this set, his smashes being very deadly. The third set was a complete surprise. Savage and Baldwin showing excellent head work and combining hard driving with first class placing, forced the game to the limit and won by 6-0.

On paper this looks a bad beating, but in reality many of the games went to deuce and vantage several times before the winning stroke was made.

The fourth set also went to Savage and Baldwin, who continued to play in excellent form. Score, 6-3. The final and deciding set was a whirlwind, from the jump. One all, two all, three all and four all was called and so far it looked like an even chance. Then Thomson and Stevenson made a supreme effort and captured Savage's service making the score 5-4. The tenth game was bitterly fought out, the play all round being first class; Stevenson's driving being terrific and Savage showing some of the best form he has exhibited at Puunene. However, the Thomson-Stevenson combination was too strong and the game went to them and with it the match and championship.

For country players the form shown by all was remarkable and Honolulu will have to look to her laurels next time she visits Puunene on tennis affairs.

SPORTING GOSSIP

Among the noted record horses that died during 1926 were: Alcyon, 2:20; Alta Aworth, 3:20 1-2; Alcantaris, 2:20 1-4; Alvan Swift, 2:10 3-4; Count de Kayville, 2:15 1-4; Dan Ho, 2:01 3-4; Equity, 2:12 1-4; Enright, 2:18 1-4; John Mc., 2:09 3-4; Lady Pendleton, 2:16 1-4; Quincey, 2:11 1-4; Seymour Wilkes, 2:08 1-2; Stanton Wilkes, 2:10 1-2; and Vera Prodigal, 3:20 3-4.

PRIZE PICTURES FOR ARBOR DAY

Mr. Ralph S. Hosmer, chairman of Arbor Day Committee, is desirous that enthusiasm for Arbor Day celebrations shall not dwindle, either for those that have past or are to come.

He speaks of the school children as waiting with eager expectation for the delivery of prizes which are to be awarded for the care and protection given to prize trees.

Mr. Babbitt, Superintendent of Public Instruction, has sent out letters and is receiving replies regarding Arbor Day trees. From these answers he expects to make a fair selection of the successful schools.

In accordance with the desires of the school children for pictures as prizes, Mr. D. Howard Hitchcock has sold to the committee, for $50, ten most beautiful paintings. These, with a collection from local stores will be most acceptable as prizes.

Following is a list of the subjects of the Arbor Day pictures, contributed by Mr. Hitchcock: 1. Sulphur banks at Volcano Kilauea; 2. Lava vase in Puna, about 18 feet high; 3. Cutting sugar cane; 4. Kaalanawai, the Blind Boy; 5. Duck ranch, Kewalo; 6. Lava near Kapoho, in Puna, Hawaii; 7. Valley scene mauka from Kaneohe; 8. Hilo coast, Island of Hawaii; 9. (water color) Judd street, showing Rev. H. Parker's residence; 10. (water color) Bougainville vine and coconut trees.

An attempt will be made to place the paintings on exhibition for the public before final distribution to the winning schools.

MEMORIAL WINDOW IS UNVEILED

The unveiling of the Proctor memorial window took place yesterday at St. Elizabeth's Chapel in the Palama district. The window is a most beautiful piece of work and quite valuable, costing in the neighborhood of $3,000. In design it represents the boy Jesus visiting St. Elizabeth and her son.

Under the design is the inscription "In Memory of Charlotte Elizabeth Proctor, entered into rest March 25, 1902. 'To give light to them that sit in darkness'."

Bishop Restarick spoke quite feelingly on the gift of the window and the blessedness of gifts to God. Expressions of an appropriate nature, regarding the window and its object were made by Rev. W. E. Potvine, the pastor of St. Elizabeth's Chapel. His discourse was quite lengthy and well worth listening to. He ended with the following:

"We all rejoice, I am sure, in this evident enrichment of this consecrated building, and I for one venture the belief that the appeal which this beautiful window will silently make here will not be lost upon hearts, however simple, that worship at this altar."

By invitation, the congregation inspected the grounds and building of the Mission after service.

GERMANS CELEBRATE

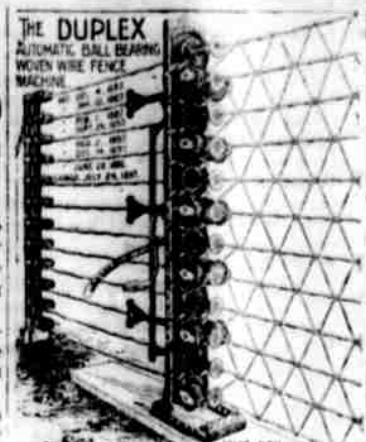

The schoolroom of the Deutsch Evangelische church was the scene of a celebration yesterday by the members of the Honolulu German colony in honor of Kaiser William's birthday. Patriotic addresses, recitations and music were in order throughout. German and American flags were becomingly draped about the room, with here and there bits of German national colors.

The opening address was made by William Pfothner, the German Consul. Three cheers were given for the Emperor at the conclusion of the consul's remarks. Pastor Felmy followed the Consul with an eloquent historical address.

Refreshments were served to all present.
